At this point I have no other choice but to let you know that I am requesting the amount you have profited off my designs which would be 14@185 totaling 2790.00, and that you send me any other blankets in your possession of my design. I have never gave you permission to sell my design therefore you are under 17 USC law 501 knowingly committing copyright infringement

I will gladly step into a court room to protect what is well within my legal right of which I spent hours sometimes months creating my designs.

I have spoke to my legal counsel and this is my avenue as the best business courtesy since I have asked you before and you agreed to not sell them but faulted on said agreement.

I have sent a certified copy to you as well

As a result, we demand that you immediately remove the content and halt any additional infringements of our Work, including any other infringements, or you may face legal action and consequent statutory damages.

We also demand to be reimbursed from what you have knowingly profited off Legends Ranch design after you agreed to stop selling the design on Sept 23 2023

You knowingly after Sept 23 continued to sell property of Legends Ranch

Harassment is a completely different and this is not harassment this is a business matter of having knowledge of being in the possession of copyright infringement products and continuing to sell after you were told to stop

You still at this point at 5:59 are advertising legends Ranch property

Like I said you move your way I'll move mine

If you think it's harassment please contact the local authorities as I have already retained legal counsel on this matter and Monday they will be handling it

This is where my responses end with you unless you are sending me my copyright protected items or a picture of them being destroyed

Anything further wait for legal counsel to reach out

You know I have no idea what you're talking about as still. I don't have time for this and simply have done all I can do. If you see something of out there let me know and I'll take it down. That is all I can do. I've been as nice as I can but I'm not going to be harassed about this. Once again I from time to time buy extra pads. I asked my supplier if this was someone's design and he said he didn't think so. He sent that one to me and if there's more than that then if you'll send me the pictures I'll take them down.

Have an awesome day.
