COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

Docket number: 26-CCB-0600
October 22, 2026

Marcus L Story	v.	Phoenix Rising Media
CLAIMANT		RESPONDENT

ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT CLAIM

The Copyright Claims Board (Board) finds that your claim does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations. The claim cannot move forward unless it is amended.

If you wish to proceed with this claim, you must file an amended claim by November 23, 2026. If you do not, the Board must dismiss your claim without prejudice, although you may file again in the future before the Board or in federal court. If you file an amended claim and it is found compliant, you will be notified and directed to proceed with service. There is no additional filing fee for an amended claim. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(1)(B).

To make your amended claim compliant, you must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your claim before you file it again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your claim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your claim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Respondent Mailing Address

Your claim must include the respondent's mailing address. 37 C.F.R. § 222.2(c)(6). In the "Respondent" section of your claim, you identify Phoenix Rising Media as the respondent but provide what appears to be the address of the respondent's attorney, John Arsenault. The September 4, 2026 YouTube counter-notification included in your claim designates the address of the respondent's counsel for notices, correspondence, and service of process relating to that counter-notification. However, the designation of counsel's address for that purpose does not establish that it is the respondent's mailing address or that respondent has designated that address for service of process in a CCB proceeding.

In your correspondence with the Board, you explained that you contacted the respondent's attorney on October 4, 2026, to request the respondent's mailing address but have not received a response. You also indicated that you have prepared documents to request a subpoena under 17 U.S.C. § 512(h) to obtain the respondent's address from YouTube.

If you file an amended claim, you must provide the respondent's own U.S. mailing address, rather than merely providing the address of its attorney. If you are unable to obtain the respondent's mailing address by the deadline, you should not file an amended claim that merely repeats the attorney's address. You may file a new claim once you obtain the respondent's mailing address, subject to applicable filing requirements and the statute of limitations.

Please note that being in the process of obtaining address information through a Section 512(h) subpoena will not extend your time for filing an amended claim.

To submit an amended claim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the "Amend claim" button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your claim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original claim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended claim on the "Documentation" page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the "Review" page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the claim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select "Edit" to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an "Edit" button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click "Save & review" to return to the Review page. Please review your claim carefully. Once you submit your amended claim, you will be unable to edit the claim while it is in compliance review.
5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your claim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the "Digital signature" box near the bottom of the "Review filing" page and click "Agree & submit."
