We received a counter notification (below) in response to a copyright removal request that you submitted. A counter notification is a legal request for YouTube to reinstate a video that was removed due to a copyright removal request.

You have 10 US business days to reply to this counter notification. Your response must include evidence that you've taken legal action against the uploader to keep the content from being reinstated to YouTube. Usually, evidence would include a lawsuit against the uploader, which names the YouTube URL(s) at issue and seeks a court order to restrain the alleged infringement.

Evidence should be submitted by replying directly to this email. Do not send your reply to copyright@youtube.com.

After 10 US business days, if we don't get a response from you, the content at issue may be reinstated to YouTube. You can find more information about the legal action you must take and what evidence is acceptable in our Help Center.

Display name of uploader: mazikan hasria

The copyright claim submitted against my video/content is false, misleading, and submitted in bad faith. The claimant does not own, control, or represent any rights associated with this work in any capacity. I confirm that all materials included in the video, including the visual content, audio elements, and thumbnail design, are either fully owned by me or used with proper authorization and legal rights. The claim filed against my content constitutes a fraudulent copyright allegation and represents an abuse of the copyright reporting system. This action has caused unjustified harm to my channel and professional activities. Therefore, I formally request the immediate removal of this claim and the restoration of my content. I reserve all legal rights to pursue action against any party engaging in false claims or misuse of copyright enforcement systems. I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the information in this counter notification is accurate and that I am the rightful owner or authorized representative of the copyright holder

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief the material was removed due to a mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled.

I consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the district in which my address is located, or if my address is outside of the United States, the judicial district in which YouTube is located, and will accept service of process from the claimant.
