Hello,

We removed the listings at the bottom of this message because we received a report from a rights owner alleging that the product or product packaging on the listing may infringe the rights owner's copyright. The rights owner communication about the alleged infringement and the listings we removed are at the bottom of this message.

Why did this happen?
We received a report from a rights owner alleging that one or more of your listings may be infringing the intellectual property rights of others. Listing content infringing on the intellectual property of others is against our policies:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/gp/help/521

We're here to help.
If you need help understanding how your listings may infringe the intellectual property rights of others, please visit the "Intellectual Property Policy" page in Seller Central Help:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/gp/help/external/201361070

Have your listings been removed in error?
If you believe the product and product packaging of the ASIN below do not infringe on the copyright of others, you may submit a dispute by filing a counter-notice under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

Alternatively, if you think that the rights owner has made an error in sending the notice, please reach out to the rights owner and ask them to submit a retraction of this notice. We may only accept retractions that the rights owner submits to us directly. We do not accept forwarded or attached retractions.

These are the rights owner's contact details:
-- Cory Lapin
-- Cory@shakedlaw.com

How do I submit this information?
Go to "Received Intellectual Property Complaints" under the "Product Policy Compliance" section in Account Health:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/performance/dashboard?ref=ah_em_mpa

Locate the deactivation record for this product listing. Click on the "Appeal" button next to the listing deactivation record. Dispute the violation by submitting a DMCA counter-notice from the "Explanation" link located below the appeal form.

For more information about submitting a counter-notice pursuant to the DMCA:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/gp/help/G202017130

What happens if I do not provide the requested information?
If we do not receive a response, the listing will remain deactivated. The violation record will remain on your Account Health page for up to 180 days after the listing was deactivated or until the violation is successfully disputed. Deleting your listing on this ASIN does not sufficiently address the reason for the violation and will not result in its removal from your Account Health page. Leaving this and other listing violations unaddressed may result in account deactivation.

If you do not provide the information within 60 days, you will receive a request to remove the inventory associated with these listings per our removal policy. Failure to address this request can lead to destruction of your inventory.

-- Cory@shakedlaw.com

Rights owner communication: I have a registered US copyright of a design of Old man wearing golf attire (gray pants with blue/purple collared shirt) throwing a punch at a young man wearing a white hockey jersey and red pants on a golf course next to the logo with "Price is Wrong" text. I sell this design on golf ball markers, golf headcovers, towels, socks, etc. See ASINs B0B78G12FM, B09CYCRYT8, B0B4N13NYZ.

After seeing our success with these products, K9 King began selling on Amazon.com and Etsy.com products with our identical designs: exact same character, wearing the same clothes, with the same features, near the same text, with the same unique texts on the sides, with the same colors without our consent. Even the sides of the cover have the same text on it! As can be seen in the product images, K9 King's products are so strikingly similar to our works that K9King could not have created them independently.

I have even sued this seller for this exact copyright infringement.

What happens if I do not provide the requested information?
If we do not receive a response, the listing will remain deactivated. The violation record will remain on your Account Health page for up to 180 days after the listing was deactivated or until the violation is successfully disputed. Deleting your listing on this ASIN does not sufficiently address the reason for the violation and will not result in its removal from your Account Health page. Leaving this and other listing violations unaddressed may result in account deactivation.

Hello,

We removed the listings at the bottom of this message because we received a report from a rights owner alleging that the product or product packaging on the listing may infringe the rights owner's copyright. The rights owner communication about the alleged infringement and the listings we removed are at the bottom of this message.

Why did this happen?
We received a report from a rights owner alleging that one or more of your listings may be infringing the intellectual property rights of others. Listing content infringing on the intellectual property of others is against our policies:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/gp/help/521

We're here to help.
If you need help understanding how your listings may infringe the intellectual property rights of others, please visit the "Intellectual Property Policy" page in Seller Central Help:
https://sellercentral.amazon.com/gp/help/external/201361070

Have your listings been removed in error?
If you believe the product and product packaging of the ASIN below do not infringe on the copyright of others, you may submit a dispute by filing a counter-notice under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act.

Alternatively, if you think that the rights owner has made an error in sending the notice, please reach out to the rights owner and ask them to submit a retraction of this notice. We may only accept retractions that the rights owner submits to us directly. We do not accept forwarded or attached retractions.

Rights owner communication: {I have a registered US copyright of a golf ball marker design of an old tan man wearing golf attire (gray pants with blue/purple collared shirt) throwing a punch at a young man wearing a white hockey jersey and red pants on a golf course next to my logo with "Price is Wrong" text. See ASIN B0B4N13NYZ.

After seeing our success with these products, K9 King began selling on Amazon.com and Etsy.com products with our identical designs: the same "price is wrong" logo, exact same characters, doing the same actions, wearing the same clothes, with the same features, near the same text, with the same colors without our consent. As can be seen in the product images, K9 King's product is so strikingly similar to our work that K9King could not have created them independently.

I have even sued this seller for this exact copyright infringement.}
