REQUEST FOR ADMISSION OF FACTS

Case No. 25-CCB-0006, Fishman v. Bella Lumière Photography, et al.

The Respondent, Riley-Payton Priddle, is hereby requested to admit or deny the truth of the following statements of fact, pursuant to the directive of the Copyright Claims Board (CCB) to resolve factual disputes concerning editing. A party that fails to respond to this request within the required timeframe may be deemed to have admitted the statements.

Response (Admit or Deny): Admit

Response (Admit or Deny): Deny

Request for Admission Number 3: The edits applied by the Respondent, including color adjustments and conversion to black and white, resulted in the creation of at least one derivative work of the original Belt Photo.

Response (Admit or Deny): Admit

Certification of Admission

I, Riley-Payton Priddle, certify that the above responses are truthful and accurate to the best of my knowledge, and I understand that these admissions will be used as undisputed facts in the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board.
