COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD

Docket number: 25-CCB-0546
October 1, 2026

Shade Rupe	v.	Darcy Stanger
CLAIMANT AND COUNTERCLAIM-RESPONDENT		RESPONDENT AND COUNTERCLAIMANT

SECOND ORDER TO AMEND NONCOMPLIANT COUNTERCLAIM

On March 31, 2026, the Copyright Claims Board ("Board") found the amended claim ("Claim") compliant and directed claimant Shade Rupe ("Claimant") to serve the respondent Darcy Stanger ("you"). On July 15, 2026, you filed a response to the Claim, in which you asserted a contractual counterclaim against Claimant. The Board found the contractual counterclaim noncompliant and directed you to submit an amended counterclaim. You filed an amended counterclaim on September 17, 2026. The Board finds that the contractual counterclaim, as amended, still does not comply with the requirements of the CASE Act and related regulations.

To proceed with your contractual counterclaim, you must submit a second amended counterclaim by November 2, 2026. If you file an amended counterclaim, it will be reviewed for compliance and the parties will be notified if it is found compliant or noncompliant. 17 U.S.C. § 1506(f)(2). You may choose to remove the contractual counterclaim and proceed without a counterclaim. If your second amended counterclaim includes the contractual counterclaim and remains noncompliant, the Board must dismiss the counterclaim without prejudice, and the proceeding will continue with Claimant's infringement claim.

If you file a second amended counterclaim, it must resolve the issues identified below. 37 C.F.R. § 224.1(c)(2). You may also choose to correct or edit any errors or other information in your counterclaim before you file again. You do not need to provide a legal argument in your counterclaim – just a statement of facts and circumstances. Being specific in your description gives the other party and the Board more information about your counterclaim. There is no character limit, so please be as detailed as possible.

Contractual Counterclaim

You have raised a "contractual counterclaim," which is a counterclaim that must be based on a contract or agreement that (1) pertains to the same transaction or occurrence as the Claimant's infringement claim, and (2) could affect the relief awarded to the Claimant. 17 U.S.C. § 1504(c)(4)(B)(ii). A contractual counterclaim must describe the contract or agreement on which the counterclaim is based, how it pertains to the same transaction or occurrence as the infringement claim, and how it could affect the relief awarded. 37 C.F.R. § 222.9(c)(6)(i)-(iii).

Your amended counterclaim still identifies an oral agreement involving "cooperation and joint facilitation" and states that the agreement "voids the request for damages." However, as the Board explained in its initial Order to Amend Noncompliant Counterclaim, your counterclaim does not clearly explain the terms of the alleged oral agreement or how Claimant breached that agreement in a way that provides a contractual basis for relief that could affect the relief awarded to Claimant in this proceeding. Although you added information concerning your defenses to Claimant's infringement claim, you did not provide additional information concerning the alleged oral agreement or otherwise address the deficiencies identified in the Board's initial order.

If you file a second amended counterclaim, you must explain how the alleged oral agreement provides a contractual basis for relief that could affect any relief awarded to Claimant. If you contend that Claimant breached the agreement, identify the terms of the agreement that you allege Claimant breached, describe the conduct that you contend constituted the breach, explain how the alleged breach harmed you and what relief you seek for that breach, and explain how that alleged breach could affect any relief awarded in this proceeding. Because you allege to have entered into an oral agreement, you should also explain when and how the agreement was formed and what its terms were.

You should include the contractual counterclaim in your second amended counterclaim only if you can allege facts showing that an agreement between the parties that relates to the infringement claim could affect any relief awarded to Claimant by the Board. If you cannot correct the contractual counterclaim, you may remove it and proceed without a counterclaim. If your second amended counterclaim includes the contractual counterclaim and it remains noncompliant, the Board must dismiss the counterclaim without prejudice. It is not necessary to assert a contractual counterclaim for the Board to consider the merits of the infringement claim and the defenses you raised in your response. More information is available in the Counterclaims chapter of the CCB Handbook.

To submit a second amended counterclaim, log into your eCCB account and take the following steps:

1. From your dashboard, click the "Amend a counterclaim" button and select your docket number from the dropdown list.
2. Your counterclaim will unlock for editing. The information you originally entered will appear in the same order as in your original counterclaim.
3. Make the necessary edits. If you have filed supplemental documents, you must re-upload any documents you wish to include in the amended counterclaim on the "Documentation" page. Please include only documents directly related to your claim, and label them clearly.
4. Once you have completed your edits, continue to click through the fillable claim form until you reach the "Review" page. The Review page includes all the information that you have provided in the counterclaim up to this point. Carefully double-check the information on this page. If you have any corrections, you can select "Edit" to revise any entries necessary. Each section of information has an "Edit" button, which will take you back to that section so you can make changes. After you make changes, you can click "Save & review" to return to the Review page. Please review your counterclaim carefully. Once you submit your amended counterclaim, you will be unable to edit the counterclaim while it is in compliance review.

5. Once you have completed your review and any revisions, you must confirm that the information in your counterclaim is accurate and truthful to the best of your knowledge. To complete the declaration, type your full name into the "Digital signature" box near the bottom of the "Review filing" page and click "Agree & submit."
