AMENDED SCHEDULING ORDER

By emails on October 19 and 20, 2026, the parties in proceeding 26-CCB-0111 informed the Copyright Claims Board (Board) that Respondent had not produced any discovery to the claimant by October 15, 2026, the deadline set in the July 15, 2026, Scheduling Order. The Board is issuing this Amended Scheduling Order to set forth the updated and remaining deadlines and instructions for the active phase of this proceeding.

Refer to this document throughout the active phase, as it has important information about your deadlines and filing instructions. Also review the Active Phase and Discovery Chapters of the CCB Handbook for in-depth instructions and background explanations of CCB procedures.

| EVENT | DEADLINE |
|---|---|
| Service of responses to standard interrogatories and production of documents in response to standard requests | October 30, 2026 |
| Status Conference | Friday, November 6, 2026, at 11:00 AM ET |

NEXT STEPS: There are two remaining steps in this stage of the active phase:

- Discovery: The parties exchange information and documents relevant to the issues in the case. The Board "may apply an adverse inference with respect to disputed facts against a party who has failed to timely provide discovery materials in response to a proper request for materials that could be relevant to such facts." 17 U.S.C. § 1506(n)(3). If Respondent fails to produce to Claimant all of the required documents and fully answer all required interrogatories by the new deadline of October 30, 2026, adverse inferences with respect to disputed facts will be applied against Respondent.
- Status Conference: The Copyright Claims Officer holds a conference to discuss the status of discovery, next steps, and any questions you may have.
