Licensing

Discover the creative freedom with Mainsail Studio fabrics for your handmade business! When you purchase any of my exclusive fabrics via Spoonflower (they're not available anywhere else), you receive an implied license. This allows you to use the fabric to craft unique items like clothing, accessories, or home decor. There are no minimums; whether you need an 8" swatch or several yards, you can get exactly what you need.

With each fabric purchase on Spoonflower, I receive a 10% royalty, ensuring that I can continue to create new designs for you to enjoy. While you don't need explicit permission to use my fabrics, I kindly request, as a courtesy, that you only share images of your creations or photos of the printed fabric on social media. Please refrain from copying the design image from Spoonflower for any marketing purposes.

One of the greatest advantages of Mainsail Studio is that my fabrics are never sold in stores, or on manufactured goods. This means your products won't have to compete with mass-produced items or fast fashion trends.

I'm sorry, but I do not sell digital files or offer licensing for them under any circumstances. This policy applies to all inquiries, and no exceptions or offers will be considered. Thank you for understanding.
