Chuck

Great! If you want to pay by check I would have to deposit it and wait till it clears (usually 2 to 3 business days) which is my policy for taking any checks. If you want to get it done quickly, cash would be perfect.

Missy

I'm afraid that won't work and that also places us at a disadvantage from collecting Obsidian Music LLCs possessions.

Chuck

Not sure how that would be a disadvantage? You hand me cash, You walk away with all your stuff. Easy peasy

I will be happy to write you a physical receipt

Missy

Cash is untraceable. With any business transaction we need it to be a check.

Crack

And you're more than welcome to count through everything at the time of pickup

Crack replied to Misty

Cash is untraceable. With any business transaction we need it to be a check.

That's why you get a receipt

Asia counter offer: Would a Cashier's Check work?

Crack

Or if you prefer, zelle or Venmo?

Those are both 100% traceable

Is a cashier's check acceptable?

Crack

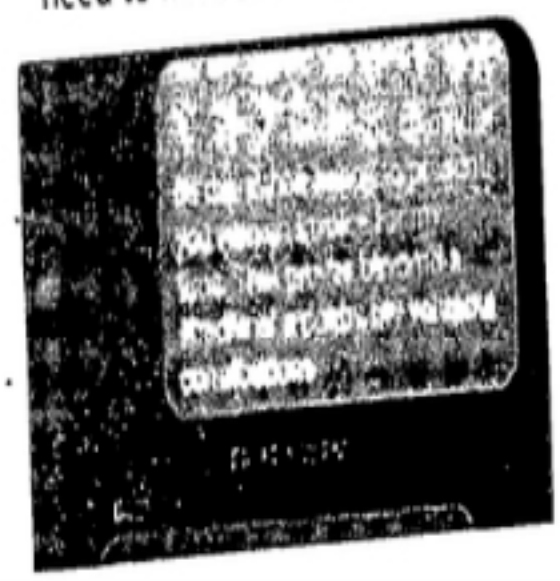

Sure, but as with my policy regarding any check. I would have to deposit it and wait for it to clear before I can release any materials.

We are not purchasing anything physical off of you. We are paying a debt and paying for rights to digital images

Crack replied to you

We are not purchasing anything physical off of you. We are paying a debt...

That is exactly true. But given the tone of previous messages like this one, I obviously need to have some collateral to ensure payment
